

March 9, 1976

PRESIDENT: Yes.

SENATOR MURPHY: I thought he was trying to take advantage of my condition on the 17th and I think that would be very unfair.

PRESIDENT: No, it is the 18th when he worries about you, Senator, and Senator Cavanaugh. Senator Lewis, your light went on after that. All right. There is a call for the question. Are there five seconds? I see five seconds. You have an amendment. Could you bring the amendment up, then, Senator Chambers. An amendment is in order at any time. You can call for the question on the amendment just as quickly.

CLERK: The amendment to the Cavanaugh motion is that LB 817 be bracketed on Final Reading. Signed Senator Chambers.

PRESIDENT: Will you read that again?

CLERK: An amendment to the Cavanaugh motion to strike the Cavanaugh motion and bracket LB 817 on Final Reading.

PRESIDENT: That is not an amendment. That is a substitution. I am ruling that out of order. I am ruling the amendment out of order. We still have a matter before us. I saw five seconds. So I am putting it to a vote. The motion is withdrawn.

CLERK: Then, Mr. President, I have a motion on the desk.

PRESIDENT: Read the motion.

CLERK: That LB 817 be bracketed on Final Reading. Signed Senator Chambers.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, I think the motion speaks for itself. This enables the mover, whenever he feels enough people are here, the introducer, to unbracket his bill and have it read when Final Reading occurs.

PRESIDENT: Senator Cavanaugh.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Your light is on.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: You never recognize me when I want to be.

PRESIDENT: Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Well, Mr. President, I am speaking on the motion to bracket. I hope that we don't accept his motion to bracket. Like Senator Syas has threatened me, I have got a long memory. I have learned my lesson well.
